SOCIETY WELCOMES DEBUTANTES-GAYETY AT SOUTHERN RESORTS

Dances and Dinners Arranged for Newcomers in Social World---Many Weddings and Engagements Announced---Happenings in Clubland---Society at Resorts in South

Garden," to the music of Liza Lehmann, the singers of the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam to be in appropriate set for the wedding. After the tableaux there will in the entertainment.

in the entertainment.

Mrs. Francis Burrall Hoffman, who is already and the entertainment, gave a luncheon at her house, 58 East Seventymenth street, on Friday for some of those who will take part in the dances. Applications for boxes and tickets for the entertainment may be made to Mrs. Hoffman. Among the patronesses are Mmss. Henry W. Taft, James B. Clews, William F. Sheehan, Edward H. Hawke. Mmes. Henry W. Taft, James B. Clews,
William F. Sheehan, Edward H. Hawke,
Jr., Andrew Dougherty, I. Townsend
Burden, Jr., Ernest Iselin, A. Masters
MacDonell, George Bird Grinnell, Anson
McCook Beard, Chauncey M. Depew, J.
Rich Steers, Morgan J. O'Brien, Stuart
Pullman West, the Misses Marie La Montagne, Mercedes Crimmins and Elisabeth
S. Hamilton

patronesses include Mrs. Edward O'Neal Shotwell, Mrs. Frederick Southack, Mrs.
Ferdinand Sands and Mrs. A. Clinton Wilmerding

that of Miss Vera Lanman Van Buren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brodhead Van Buren, and Harold C. Richard. son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Richard.

to society two years ago, is a descendant of a United States President and is a granddaughter of the late Gen. Thomas B. Van Buren, who was at one time United States Consul-General to Japan. She is a descendant also of the late Joseph Earle Sheffield of Connecticut, founder of the scientific school at Yale.

Mr. Richard, who is associated in the banking business with his father, is a nephew of former Congressman Louis Littauer. He was graduated from Princeton in 1906. The wedding will take place in January.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Dorothea Draper, daughter of Mrs. William H. Draper, to Linzee Blagden of this city. Miss Draper was introduced to society a few seasons ago. She is a daughter by his second marriage of the late Dr. William H. Draper, and is a granddaughter of the late Charles A. Dana.

Mr. Blagden, who is the son of the late George Blagden, was graduated from Harvard in 1906 and is a member of several clubs in this city, including the Union. Harvard, Racquet and Tennis, University, Rumson Country Club and St. Nicholas

No date has been mentioned for the Another engagement announced recently was that of Miss Elizabeth Van Heusen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning Van Heusen, to Arthur Gould ly son of Mr. and Mrs Will iam A. Hamilton of this city. Miss Van Heusen, who lived for some time in Lakewood. N. J., now makes her home with her parents at the Hotel Loraine.

Mr. Hamilton, who is a brother of Miss Hope Hamilton, has spent some time in the West in business since he left Columbia. The wedding will take place early in January in Grace Church.

Still another engagement recently announced was that of Miss Beatrix Cadwalader Jones, daughter of Mrs. Cadwalader Jones, to Max Farrand, proessor of history in Yale University. Miss Jones has passed a great deal of her time in travel and study abroad. She is an enthusiastic student of landgardening and her extensive travelling in Europe has been taken up

No date has been set for the wed-

An engagement made known recently in Lenox of interest to society here an Boston was that of Miss F. Constance Folsom, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. George Winthrop Folson 4of Lenox, Mass., to Cleveland Bigelow of Boston. Miss Folsom has been prominent in the social life of Lenox for years and is known to many from this city who pass the summer

Mr. Bigelow is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Bigelow of Boston. was graduated from Harvard in 1905 and is a member of the Somerset, Racequet and Tennis and Eastern Yacht

Mrs. Henry Rutgers Beekman has an nounced the engagement of her daughs Mary Elizabeth Beekman, to Mrs. L. Bayard Smith of Englewood,

Mr. Smith, who is now living in England, was graduated from Yale in 1901 and is a member of the Society of Colonial Wars and the St. Nicholas Society. No date has been set for the wedding.

of Miss Hilda Lockwood, daughter of a brother of the bride, will act as best Robert R. Hitt, son of the late Representative Robert R. Hitt of Illinois. The cere man and the ushers Charles Stetson of mony took place at Halliehurst, the avenue to John Francis O'Brien, son of Boston, a cousin of the bridegroom; the late Judge Denis O'Brien. No date has been set for the wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Duncan of Pelham Manor have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Doro-engagement of Mise Cecella Closs Dick- Davis, rector of the church, will offiinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon ciate.

Continued from First Page.

University at Washington. The entertainment is called moving tableaux vivants and it will include "In a Persian Page."

and Mrs. Martin Dennis of Newark, to chosen include Carl L. and George F. Vietor, Jr., also brothers of the bride-property of the princeton in the princeton in 1902 and is city and Thomas M. Pomery of Buffalo.

souvenirs of the Orient and before general a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. St. George's Church. The Rev. Karl dancing begins there will be a quadrille danced by all the characters taking part uncle and aunt since the death of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Vail and their Miss Isabel Hinton, as her maid of Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the church. Afterward there will be a The first of the series of May class small reception at the home of the dances at Delmonico's will be held on bride's mother, 20 Washington Square. Friday evening, December 12. The other Count and Countess Giullo Sennii, dances of the season will be on December brother-in-law and sister of the bride. 26, January 16 and February 13. The arrived last week from Europe to wit-

Misses Janet Dana and Marie Russell. are Seth M. Milliken 2d. a cousin of the bridegroom; John T. Gillespie, Harold A. Hatch, Abel J. Smith, Henry Frederick F. Alexandre will be his on of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Richard.

Miss Van Buren, who was introduced
T. Teft and Duncan Sterling.

brother's best man and the ushers will be W. H. Wallace Jr. Seymour John-

Plans have been completed for the persian costume will be on sale at entertainment there wi Spooths about the ballroom, flowers and Marsters of this city. Miss Vail, who is souvenirs of the Orient and before general a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. St. George's Church. The Rev. Karl the ushers selected are Martin S. Baldwin and Roland D. Baldwin, also brothers of the bridegroom; John P. Ramsey, William F. Lawson, Morris Groves and Shelton E. Martin.

After the ceremony there will be a small reception at the home of the bride's parents, 45 West Fifty-fifth Another out of town wedding this month of interest to society here will be that in Detroit on November 29 of Miss Anne Loomis, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. John W. Dyar of Grosse Point Farm, Mich., to J. Henry Alexandre, a son of the late J. Henry Alexandre, of this city. The ceremony will be witnessed by several guests from this city. Miss Loomis will have her An engagement recently announced was brother's best man. The ushers selected maid of honor and the bridesmaids will brother's best man. The ushers selected maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be his brother's best man.

be W. H. Wallace Jr. Seymour John-

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pringle, who were married in Panama on October 27, are expected to arrive in New York this week. Mrs. Pringle was Miss Dita Mallet, daughter of Sir Claude Mallet, British Minister at Panama, and Mr. Pringle is the son of Sir John Pringle of Jamaica, British West Indies.

Miss Geraldine Farrar, Miss Frieda Hempel, Fritz Kreisler and Wilhelm Bachaus are among the artists who will appear at Mr. Bagby's musical mornings

Miss Florence James has organized a series of Saturday evening dances, to be held at the St. Regis, on December 6, 20, January 10 and 24. The patronesses are Mrs. Henry S. Fleming, Mrs. Wilber Bloodgood, Mrs. Henry L. Burnett, Mrs. Joseph Baker Bourne, Mrs. C. Grossfternoon, November 18, at the Repub-venor Wyeth and Mrs. Clermont Livchairman of the bazaar and others interested in making it a success are Mrs. Clarence Burns, Mrs. Irving Twombly.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Mrs. Emilie Van Biel, Mrs. Lawrence C.
Bangs, Mrs. Clifford Wiley, Mrs. H. C.
Greanelle, Mrs. J. Stuart Smith, Mrs.
Charles E. Wilcox, Mrs. George Strong,
Mrs. J. Hudson Grant, Miss Charlotte
Pike, Mrs. William E. Wilkinson and Miss
Fannie Wilcox.

December 13, for their daughter, Miss Edith Sachs.

The New York Theatre Club, Mrs. Belle Misers, president, will hold its regular members? meeting on Tuesday at the Hotel cussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 167

Copenhagen, arrived a few days ago from Europe. She will be for some time with her mother, Mrs. James W. Pinchot, in Washington, and will make frequent visits to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pringle, who

The first of the subscription dances organized by Mrs. Parry L. Wright, which was held on Friday at the Hotel Critham, brought out many young people. The next dance in the series will be on November 28, and will be followed by others on December 26 and January 23.

The patronesses in addition to Mrs.

Wright are Mrs. William H. Gould, Mrs.

Walter McCorkle, Mrs. Warren D. Han-Walter McCorkle, Mrs. Warren D. Hanford, Mrs. W. Irving Twombly, Mrs.
Frank R. Ross, Mrs. Oscar Taussig, Mrs.
Cecil Graham, Mrs. Hart Gress, Mrs.
John L. Lowe, Mrs. Maurice Lackman,
Mrs. Duncan MacMartin, Mrs. Charles B.
Flynn, Mrs. William W. Conley, Mrs.
James Richey, Mrs. William C. Bailey and Mrs. Frank B. Carpenter.

The annual meeting of the trustees of Mrs. Benjamin Guggenheim wil Igive a dance at the St. Regis on Christmas Eve at which she will present her daughter Miss Benetta Guggenheim.

A S November will have its full quota of weddings and debutante teas, so December will have its bazaars and charitable entertwenments. At the Little Mothers' bazaar and flower fete to be held at Waldorf-Astoria on Saturday, December 6, each booth will represent a different flower and those in charge will wear costumes suggestive of that particular blossom.

Mrs. Bond Stow will be in charge will wear costumes booth. In an arbor of wistaria will be located the children's booth, which will be in charge of Mrs. Henry Forbes Kiddle. In a bower of pink and white roses will be the New Yorkers' table, which will be in charge of Mrs. Leland Sidlow.

To complete the plans for the bazaar meetings will be held every Thursday

Miss Benetta Guggenheim.

Mrs. Raymond C. Penfield gave a musicale and dance on Thursday evening at the home, 336 Riverside Drive, for her son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Severett L. Judkins. Charles Louis Sicard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lembke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lembke, Mr. and Mrs. John Bull-man, Mr. and Mrs. Walliam R. Charles Blandy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blandy, Mr. and Mrs. Walliam R. Charles Lembke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blandy, Mr. and Mrs. Walliam R. Charles Blandy, Mr. and Mrs. John McKinnon.

To complete the plans for the bazaar meetings will be held every Thursday meetings will be held every Thursday morning at Happy Day House on Second avenue. Mrs. Albert Gallatin Weed is chairman of the bazaar and others intersected by making it a success are Mrs. Edith Sachs. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sachs of 4 West

Fannie Wilcox.

Two entertainments are being arranged for the benefit of the Widowed Mothers' Fund Association, of which Mrs. William Einstein is president. They will be held at the Hotel Astor on November 24 and December 8 and the programme will include fancy dancing by professionals, competitive dancing for prizes and motion pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive, on November 15 for their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Goddard, who were married in June. Mrs. Goddard was Miss Margaret Bates. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive, and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive, on November 15 for their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Goddard, who were married in June. Mrs. Goddard was Miss Margaret Bates. Mr. and Mrs. Objective and Drive are ception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive, on November 15 for their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Goddard, who were married in June. Mrs. Goddard was Miss Margaret Bates. Mr. and Mrs. Objective and Drive and Drive are ception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive and Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive, on November 15 for their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive, on November 15 for their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive and Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive and Charles Austin Bates and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates will give a reception at their home, 107 Riverside Drive and Charles Austin Bates and Charles Aus

Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips gave a reception with music at her home. 40 West Forty-seventh street, yesterday afternoon to the members of the Young Women's Hospital Guild, of which she is president. The annual charity ball will be held at the Plaza on December 11.

In compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Joh Lonsdale Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Hill entertained at dinner on Wednesday eve ning at their home, 131 West Eighty-sixth street. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bedell Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd S. Corbon, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Gra-Mrs. Downing, Dr. and Mrs. Jol Strothers Gaines and James A. Ailen.

Miss Dorothy Stevenson, who left last week for Europe, had a luncheon given for her before her departure by the Misses Viola and Adelina Vetter at their home. 302 West Ninety-second street. guests were Miss Helen Stevenson, Miss Margaretta Homans, Mrs. A. L. Marsh, Mrs. Earle Hammons and Mrs. B. T. A series of five luncheons will be given during the winter by the Women's Republican Club. They will be at Deimon ico's, the first being on November 11, and the others on the second Tuesday in each month, the last taking place on Lincoln's hirthday, Mrs. James Griswold Wentz is Tuesday evening, January 9, is the date decided upon by the National Council of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the British Empire, for its second annual ball. It will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria. Tickets may be had from Mrs. William D. Mitchell of 117 Lincoln road, Brooklyn, or Mrs. Robert Beecher of 24 Riverside Drive.

The annual ball of the French Day Nursery will be held at Louis Martin's on November 15. Many well known people have signified their intention of being present at not only the ball but the dinner as well.

The French Day Nursery, the only institution of its kind in the United States, is taking care of 100 children, feeding, nursing and teaching them. The ball is under the auspices of a special committee composed of Mrs. Henri Crenier, Mrs. Theo. Hansen, Mrs. B. Sinsheimer and Mrs. Felix Levy.

The wedding of Miss Sylvia H. Goodman, daughter of Nathan Goodman of 214 West Ninety-scoold street, to Dr. Bernhard Wolf Weinberger will take place on Thursday at Delmonico's. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Harris and will be followed by a small Dr. Harris and will be followed by a small reception. There will be no attendants. Dr. Weinberger and his bride on their return from their wedding trip will make their home with her father.

Alexander Strong, son of the Rev. George Alexander Strong, rector of Christ Church, this city, will be married to Miss Mary Tufts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tufts of Boston, on November 15. The wedding will take place in Trinity Church, Boston.

One of this month's brides will be Miss Agnes M. Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Daly of 542 West 148th street. She will be married to John J. Slattery on November 12. The wedding will take place in the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes and the ceremony and low nuptial laws will be neground by the Rev. D. mass will be performed by the Rev. P. P.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Adelma Helene Merz. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Merz of 53 West Eighty-eighth street, to Maurice Bessell Dean, on November 11, at the Church of the Advent, Broadway and Ninety-third street. The Rev. Dr.

and Ninety-third street. The Rev. Dr.
Horn, the pastor, will officiate.
The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Frieda Ruppenthal as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Elsa Merz, Miss Celine Zinkheisen,

At the home of her father on Wednes-Under the auspices of the Junior League of the Free Industrial School for Crippled Children, a bazaar will be held in the Waldorf-Astoria on December 2

Van De Water performed the ceremony.

The engagement has been announced her bridesmaids. Stephen L. Landon, R. Hitt, son of the late Representative Thurlow Gordon of Washington, Henry

A wedding in Buffalo of interest to thy Duncan, to Charles Desmond Wads-worth of Boston. Miss Duncan was Miss Elizabeth Bacon Allen, daughter introduced to society in Baltimore, of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Allen of Buffalo where she lived formerly with her to Thomas F. Vietor, son of Mrs. George parents. Mr. Wadsworth is the son of F. Vietor of this city. It will be cele-Mrs. Howard Henderson Wadsworth, brated on Wednesday, November 12, in the chapel of Trinity Church and will be witnessed by several relatives and Announcement has been made of the friends from this city. The Rev. Dr.

Dickinson o Jersey City, N. J., to Miss Allen has chosen her sister, Mrs. referic Hewlett McCoun, Jr., son of John A. Victor, as her matron of honor Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Hewie's McCoun and Miss Antile Bacon of this city will

The bride will have her sisters, the of Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, widow of Misses Agnes and Cornelia Landon, as mony took place at Halliehurst, the country home of the bride's mother, Thurlow Gordon of Washington, Henry and was performed by the Rev. Fred-Atherton of this city and Henry Hutton erick H. Barron, pastor of the Davis Landon, Jr., another brother of the Memorial Church in Elkins. Only relatives witnessed the ceremony. Elkins acted as best man.

on their wedding journey. Later they Thanksgiving. will go to Middleburg, Va.

Carroll, daughter of Mrs. John Howell Mrs. French Vanderbilt. She will be Carroll of this city and Baltimore, to for some time in Newport, and when Major John Philip Hill, United States she returns to England will be accom-District Attorney of Baltimore. The panied by her mother, Mrs. F. Ormond ceremony took place on Tuesday in French, who expects to pass the winter Grace and St. Peter's P. E. Church in at Villa St. Priest in Cannes, France.

Elkins had Mrs. Blaine Elkins as her Whitney in Roslyn, L. I., have gone to sail on November 25 to pass the winter. The entertainments will be under the Lady Cheylsmore, formerly Miss Another recent wedding of interest to Bessie French, arrived last week on the ociety here was that of Miss Suzanne Lusitania and was met by her sister,

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor Varnum be the maid of honor. There are to be no bridesmaids.

The Markett has been announced Dr. John A: Victor will be his wildred Dennis, daughter of Mr. brother's best man and the ushers with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne who is now at the Buckingham, will Lady Johnster.

only attendant, and ex-Senator Davis

Newport, to be with Mrs. Vanderbilt at in Europe.

the Breakers. Mrs. Vanderbilt expects

Mrs. Charles W. Clinton and her daughter, Miss Margery Clinton, who Clinton's son, Kenneth, is a student at the Beaux Arts.

Mrs. John Astor took possession on Thursday of the H. B. Hollins residence, will be for the winter with her children, in Europe.

Mrs. Charles W. Clinton and her daughter, Miss Margery Clinton, who have been at their villa in Tuxedo, will sail for France on Thursday. They will be in Paris for the winter, where Mrs.

Clinton's son Kennath is a student of the content of the cont Seligman and Mrs. Frank V. Strauss.

Tickets may be had from Mrs. Henry Bodenheimer of 1239 Madison avenue or Mrs. Harry Kraft of the Langdon, Fifth avenue and Fifty-sixth straus.

12 . West Fifty-sixth street, where she Vincent and Alice Astor. As she is in Vincent and Alice Astor. As she is in deep mourning for her brother, the late Barton Willing, Mrs. Astor will not appear in society.

Lady Johnstene, wife of Sir Alan

In the Waldorf-Astoria on December 2 and 3. The chairman at the various tables which was followed by a reception and dance.

The bride, who was given away by her father, were a gown of white satin utility; Mrs. Frank N. Lewis, Junior League table; Mrs. Frederick Baggs and

Continued on Pourty Page.